About Nikol

Nikol Transport Services is an integral part of the Frocase group, specializing in domestic and international road transport. By combining local expertise with the logistics infrastructure of Frocase, Nikol provides customers with fast response times, flexible service, and reliable delivery. Our focus is on punctuality, safety, and transparent communication. This enables us to support both small businesses and multinational manufacturing groups. As a part of Frocase, Nikol customers benefit from a complete range of logistics solutions – from express shipments to complex forwarding projects.
